M. A. BARNES, OF AUBURN,
WRITES ON HOME WATER SYSTEMS.

The average farm people of Coffee County are paying at present about $2.30 per 1000 gallons for their water supply. The people of Elba pay 10c and it is possible for the farm people to have an abundant supply of water at a cost of only 13c per 1000 gallons. Is it economy to pay $2.30 for something that we can get for 13c? With the present method of carrying water by hand we lost $2.17 on every 1000 gallons of water we use. Why do we pay $2.30?

Whether we do the work ourselves or hire someone else there is a value on the work. Time yourself and see how long it will take you to carry into and from the house as waste a thousand gallons of water. Value your time at the small sum of 10c per hour and if you are the average farm woman you will find that it has cost you $2.30. Why not spend that time raising some produce for the market? Spend 13c for a water system (for that is what it would cost for every gallon) and put the other $2.17 in the bank.

A complete water system including bath-room conveniences can be bought for $400.00 or less. This can be bought part at a time at a small outlay of cash at each time. It is an investment that will pay dividends in money saved and also in pleasure to the family.

With cotton at the present price we should economize in every way possible and for that reason we cannot afford to pay $2.30 when we can get the same thing for 13c.

Discuss these things with your Farm or Home Demonstration Agent and ask them to get such information as you may need from the Agricultural Engineering Department from Auburn.

COMPULSORY SCHOOL TERM IN COFFEE COUNTY BEGUN
NOVEMBER FIRST.

At the last meeting of the County School Board at which I was present it was agreed that the compulsory school law should go into enforcement the first of this month. I am taking this opportunity to tell all my school patrons in Coffee County that I am expecting them to help us get this fully into line so that we can have the assurance of this being one of the best school years Coffee County has ever had. Every child under 16 years of age is under this school law and is entitled to the advantages which the same affords.

As quickly as possible I shall be in every school district in this county but I am hoping I shall not find many boys and girls who are not enrolled for the year's work.

The Elba Boy Scouts' football team defeated the Brockton Bears 34 to 0 here Tuesday on a field of mud and water. John Kendrick quarterback, managed the team well, and also made three extra points after the touchdowns. In the line F. Harper and Jefferson Carney stood out well for the locals and made some mighty nice plays. F. Lowry, M. Prescott, W. Whitman and W. Ellis played jam-up football for the locals, also.

SUPERINTENDENT J. E. HUDSON
WRITES LETTER OF EX-PLANATION.

Editor Elba Clipper: Permit me to make a statement through your paper to the citizens of the County to correct a wrong impression many of the people have as to my connection with the action of the sub-committee in nominating a man to serve on the County School Board. I have the utmost confidence in the ability of the straight thinking people of this county to form a just opinion of men and measures if the real facts are before them. Due to the fact that the name of "W. N. Hudson" was signed to an article recently appearing in the County paper, upholding the action of the sub-committee, I have been credited by many with having written this article. This is absolutely false and if those who circulated it had noticed they could easily have seen that the initials were not mine. I am in no way connected with, or lined up with this sub-committee, or any individual on it. I have no more to do with shaping the policies of this committee than any other citizen of the county. In fact I have absolutely nothing to do with it, and do not meddle with the affairs of the committee.

J. E. (Edmond) Hudson,
County Superintendent.

Coffee County Probate Judges

JUDGE B. M. WEEKS

(By Judge J. A. Carney)

Judge Bartimeus M. Weeks was the fourth Probate Judge of Coffee County, succeeding Judge B. W. Starke. He began his term of office on August 4, 1868, and served only one term of six years. Judge Weeks was a Republican.

His election was during the reconstruction period and while Alabama was under military rule. Elections were held under the supervision of military dictators. Many loyal citizens had been disfranchised. In Coffee, an election was at the County Seat at Elba and was presided over by one Mr. Rowe, who had been sent here from New Orleans. The people came from all parts of the County to cast their votes, and it was the paupers were contracted to James M. Crosby for their keeping as there was no poor house. The Court House had been completed during Judge Starke's administration, and all county officials were in the new court house.

There was much feeling existing between factions in the county, resulting from divisions in the War, and this feeling was intensified by treatment of loyal citizens during reconstruction times. Constant changes were being made in office. In fact, during the six years Judge Weeks was in the Probate office the county government was continuously under going change from the rule of the Union sympathizers to the faction loyal to the South during the War, and in 1874 when Judge Weeks' term ended and Judge Daniel Willis, a Confederate soldier, was elected, sweeping changes were made all over Alabama. Republicans were the only Republican Probate Judge Coffee has had.

Judge Weeks was a good man. He was a farmer and resided near Weeks bridge on Pea River when elected as Probate Judge. After his term of office he purchased the farm later owned by Mr. John B. Reeves near John Woodland Grove Church, later removing to the place known to us as the Braxton H. Mixon place on the Weeks bridge and Geneva road.

Judge Weeks did not do service in the Civil War, being too old. He was a man of small stature, fond of sports and taking from Coffee County much of its former territory, and a debt commission reported that Geneva County's pro rata of the public debt which the new County of Geneva should pay Coffee County was $3,729.52. The re-arrangement of the County boundaries changed the Commissioners districts and the personnel of two of the Commissioners. In 1871 a local act was passed authorizing the Court of County Commissioners to define the boundaries of all four commissioners districts, and this law has never been changed. On account of the organization of the new County of Geneva commissioners' District lines were moved northward. On May 1, 1871, the Court of County Commissioners made an order dividing the County north and south by Range line between 20 and 21, and east and west by township lines between 5 and 6. This arrangement continued until October 7, 1924, when the Court of County Commissioners made new boundaries for the four districts so as to group in to the Commissioners districts whole beats and try to the best lines to form dividing lines between commissioners districts.

In February 1872, four new commissioners took charge and held their first term of office. These were I. T. Law, W. W. Tate, Jas. M. Adkinson, and James Churchwell. Mr. A. Vaughn succeeded Wiley Williams as Circuit Clerk. Mr. James I. Warren was County treasurer until 1872 when he was succeeded by Mr. P. J. Ham who served during the remainder of Judge Weeks' administration. Mr. H. E. Dannelley succeeded James M. Crosby as Sheriff. James A. Davis succeeded John C. Jolly as tax assessor, and W. J. Shellgrove was the tax collector during first part of Judge Weeks' administration, and was succeeded by Jesse O'Neal. At this time Geo. P. Roberts was Register in Chancery, J. E. P. Flourney was County Solicitor, and W. D. Roberts County Attorney.

There was not much business transacted for the County during these years as the taxes collected were very small. County paupers were contracted to James M. Crosby for their keeping as there was no poor house. The Court House had been completed during Judge Starke's administration, and all county officials were in the new court house.

Under the carpet, in the teapot, behind the clock—none of these places are safe hiding spots for money, as is attested by news items that one sees frequently in the daily papers.

Robbers and sneak thieves appear to know just where to look for the family hoard that is hidden about the house instead of being deposited in a bank, where it would be safe.

Besides, banks pay interest on time deposits. Put your money at work for you in our bank where it will be safe.

DEATH OF MR. RUSH STEVENS.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. Rush Stevens Oct. 1, 1926 and took from her the loving companion. He left his dear wife with her broken, sitting on a rolling chair. Oh! Grandfather how hard it is to give you up but God knew best so he took him out of his sufferings. He was paralyzed Wednesday evening between one and two o'clock in his left side. He was sick only 48 hours, for the first 24 hours he could talk but the next 24 hours we would call him but dear friend he would not answer. Hard it was to talk to my dear old grandfather and then he could not speak to me.

Went it be so sweet when we can meet him in Heaven on that shining street of gold.

Went not Grandmother but pray that you may meet him some day, that you know he is at rest.

Grandmother you know that it is hard for you that you can not hear that low foot-step tramping over the floor and he cannot come in and talk with you as he often did. Oh! how hard it was to talk to my dear old grandfather and then he could not speak to me.

Went it be so sweet when we can meet him in Heaven on that shining street of gold.

Went it be so sweet when we can meet him in Heaven on that shining street of gold.

Went not Grandmother but pray that you may meet him some day, that you know he is at rest.

Grandmother you know that it is hard for you that you can not hear that low foot-step tramping over the floor and he cannot come in and talk with you as he often did. Oh! how hard it was to talk to my dear old grandfather and then he could not speak to me.

Unimportant Announcement.

While Adam and Eve fell for an apple, it might be a source of satisfaction to them to know that their descendants have fallen for APPLE SAUCE ever since. Most of us still like it if "spread" in a reasonable manner.

We have an IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT to make and that is that no man is enjoying life without an auto of his own. In these days of used car values no purse is too small to neglect an opportunity. Every used-car you see in display has been used but not abused.

DEDICATION EXERCISES AT CURTIS SCHOOL HELD MONDAY.

Dedication exercises at the new Curtis Consolidated School building were held Monday, when Dr. John W. Abernethy, state superintendent of education, was the principal speaker. Other speakers on the program were Judge J. A. Carnley, Supt. J. E. Hudson, W. M. Brunson and Miss Jean Langston.

The new school building is one of the best in the county, and has just been completed at a cost of about $15,000.00. People of that section are justly proud of their new building and are to be congratulated on their interest in the education of their boys and girls.
